

TLT Instructor Required Field Work

Adventist Youth Ministries Training (AYMT) Certification

1. Establish a mentoring relationship with a conference TLT coordinator or conference director experienced in TLT ministry. Document the conversations and advice that they share with you over the course of a Pathfinder year.

Mentor Name: _____ Cell: _____

2. Read the book Tools for Teen Leaders and answer the study guide questions. Review what you learned with your Mentor.

Mentor Name: _____ Date of Review: _____

3. Review the Pathfinder Instructor's Award manual and compile a list of action items that you could use to help with activity-based teaching. Review the list with your Mentor.

Mentor Name: _____ Date of Review: _____

4. Assist your Conference leaders by teaching TLT courses at conference training events.
5. Create your TLT Staff Portfolio that contains copies of your conference Pathfinder calendar and other documents that show your involvement with TLT teaching during the year. Include handouts, your personal notes and certificates from any seminars you attend. Also, include copies of your mentoring notes and action plans as you complete requirements 1-4 above.

Reviewing Staff: _____ Date of Review: _____